

Echoes of Devotion: A Serene Vesak Celebration of Melodies and Generosity.

The sacred spirit of Vesak came alive in a beautiful symphony of faith, unity and community service at our temple organized jointly by our Karlsruhe Scholarship Program and the dedicated staff of the Dhamma School. This year's Vesak program became an unforgettable milestone showcasing the pure hearts and talents of our children.

On May 30 the highlight of the evening was the Bhakthi Gee (Devotional songs) recital, featuring the collective voices of our scholarship students from Grade 6, 7, 8 and 9, who harmoniously joined hands with the Dhamma school children. To ensure a flawless performance our team spent several weeks training and practicing with the children.

When they finally stepped on to the stage it was a sight of pure serenity. Dressed in immaculate matching whites' attire-the young girls looking angelic in traditional Lama Sariya and the boys in neat whites they resonated peace. Together, they beautifully rendered six moving devotional songs filling the temple air deep spiritual devotion that left the entire audience spellbound.

The celebration of Vesak is incomplete without the joy of sharing. On the very same day at 4.00PM a sago soup alms-giving was held for everyone in the temple.

What made this this project truly special was the incredible, selfless involvement of the parents. They took complete ownership of the event generously contributing all the necessary ingredients, coming together to prepare the warm sago soup distributing it with smiling faces, and thoroughly cleaning up the premises afterward.

This beautiful day reminded us that our program is not just about academic support, about nurturing kind, culturally rooted and community-minded human beings.
